Incendo aligns outstanding talent for its third film
*KEPT WOMAN

Montreal, July 14th, 2014 – Incendo is pleased to announce the start of principal photography on KEPT WOMAN. Inspired by true events, the film stars Courtney Ford (True Blood, Dexter, The Good Doctor) and Canadian actor Shaun Benson (Barn Wedding, Home Sweet Home, General Hospital). The film is directed by award-winning TV and feature film Michel Poulette (Agent of Influence, Bonanno: A Godfather’s Story).

“We feel very privileged to be working with Michel, Courtney and Shaun. They will contribute to the continuing success of Incendo movies worldwide. I would like to take this opportunity to mention how proud I am of our entire Production team, they are simply the best!” says Jean Bureau.

KEPT WOMAN - Jessica and her fiancé Eric could not be happier. They've just moved from the city into their dream home on a quiet suburban street. Soon after, Jessica catches her seemingly friendly new neighbor, Simon, in a strange lie and can't let her suspicions rest. The danger escalates when Simon lures her inside and imprisons her in his secret bunker, meticulously decorated in the idealized style of the 1950's. Here she meets Robin, a woman who's been held captive by Simon for several years and brutally brainwashed into living as his faithful companion - a fate that is now set for Jessica unless she can somehow find a way to escape from Simon’s time-warped prison.

KEPT WOMAN is produced with the participation of Bell Media. Jean Bureau and Ian Whitehead will produce the film for Incendo; Executive Producer is Jean Bureau.
