Incendo announces start of filming for
*TRIGGER POINT

Montreal, May 29th, 2014 – Incendo is pleased to announce that, on Monday, May 26th, it has begun principal photography on its second thriller of 2014 TRIGGER POINT, starring Jordan Hinson (Eureka, Hank). Shot on location in Montreal, the movie also co-stars Yani Gellman (Pretty Little Liars, 90210). Veteran Montreal filmmaker Philippe Gagnon (The Good Sister, Willed to Kill), will be taking the helm as Director.

“We are very excited to be working with Jordan and Yani, two young and talented actors who have both achieved international success” says Jean Bureau.

TRIGGER POINT - After her father is laid-off following a ruthless corporate take-over, college student Callie Banner joins a campus activist group campaigning to prevent the corporation from ruining the lives of countless others. Juggling school, a part-time job, and her father’s worsening situation, Callie finds a sense of belonging with the campaign and solace in Jared, its charismatic leader. Though the group preaches action through non-violence, two of its members do exactly the opposite. As she delves deeper into the group and the search for the truth behind the recent violence, Callie finds herself tangled in a web of deceit - becoming the target of the violence herself.

TRIGGER POINT is produced with the participation of Bell Media. Jean Bureau and Ian Whitehead will produce the film for Incendo; Executive Producer is Jean Bureau.
