INCENDO HONORED WITH THE GOLDEN BIRD PRIZE FOR BEST TV MOVIE AND BEST SCREENWRITER AT 2015 SEOUL INTERNATIONAL DRAMA AWARDS

Montreal, September 11, 2015 – Incendo, Canadian leader in television production and distribution, earned the prestigious Golden Bird Prize for Best TV Movie for THE GOOD SISTER at the 2015 Seoul International Drama Awards. Delighted from this recognition on the international stage, the heart-pumping thriller’s critical acclaimed screenwriter, Bob Low, also won for Best Screenwriter.

The winners were announced during the Seoul Awards Ceremony at the new MBC Sang-am Culture Plaza in Seoul and telecast on MBC on Thursday, September 10.

"It is very exciting to be recognized for 'The Good Sister' at the Seoul Int'l Drama Awards," said Jean Bureau, Incendo president and executive producer of THE GOOD SISTER. "It is a testament to the dynamic collaboration, talent and dedication on behalf of the entire Incendo team. We are thrilled and deeply honored."

Entrants for both awards were evaluated by a jury panel of domain experts in each area and were awarded based on individual excellence.

And the winners are...

Awarded the "Golden Bird Prize" for Best TV Movie, THE GOOD SISTER was directed by Philippe Gagnon and produced by Jean Bureau and Ian Whitehead. Critically acclaimed screenwriter Bob Low won for Best Screenwriter and Sonya Walger (Lost, Common Law) was nominated for Best Actress. Congratulations to all!

THE GOOD SISTER - Jack and Kate are working hard to put the pieces of their crumbling marriage back together. When Kate receives a letter informing her she has a long-lost twin sister named Linda, she is very hesitant. But Jack is hopeful this new family member will help bring the couple closer together. As he attempts to reunite the sisters, he reluctantly finds himself drawn to Linda, a vivacious, sexier version of his own wife. It's a pull he can't ignore and before long the two are embroiled in a passionate affair. But Jack will quickly discover the choice isn't between two sisters, it's between life and death, as his affair with Linda proves to be much more treacherous than he could have ever imagined.
