INCENDO SWEEPS NOMINATIONS FOR THE 2016 CANADIAN SCREEN AWARDS

Incendo Receives a Record 11 Nominations

Montreal, January 20, 2016 – Incendo, Canadian leader in television production and distribution based in Montreal, is very proud to announce that four of its movies have been nominated, with a total of 11 nominations at the 2016 Canadian Screen Awards.

Nominees were released earlier today by the Academy of Canadian Cinema & Television and include three of Incendo's films for Best TV Movie or Limited Series (FIRST RESPONSE, KEPT WOMAN and FORGET AND FORGIVE), as well as three nominations under Best Direction in a Dramatic Program or Limited Series (THE GOOD SISTER, KEPT WOMAN and FORGET AND FORGIVE). With four movies nominated across a total of 6 categories, Incendo's production receiving the highest praise is KEPT WOMAN, with five nominations in total.

"It is so delightful to see the talent and the hard work the women and men who helped create our movies be recognized by the Academy," said Jean Bureau, President and CEO of Incendo. "I want to thank them for their passion and dedication without which Incendo would not have received an unprecedented 11 nominations on 4 of our movies, I am very grateful."

And the nominees are...
