INCENDO'S "SECOND OPINION" FINALIST FOR BEST TV MOVIE AT THE SEOUL INTERNATIONAL DRAMA AWARDS

Montreal, August 7th 2018 – Incendo, a Canadian leader in television production and distribution based in Montreal, is proud to announce that its film SECOND OPINION is a Best TV Movie finalist at the 2018 Seoul International Drama Awards. The thriller, shot entirely in Montreal, was directed by Caroline Labrèche and stars Joanne Kelly. It is the only Canadian film to be nominated among all the categories considered.

“We are honored to be representing the Canadian film industry on such an international scale”, says Jean Bureau, President & CEO of Incendo. “It is very rewarding that our locally made stories are broadcast and appreciated around the world, and year after year the Seoul International Awards demonstrate their support for such productions.”

The Seoul International Drama Awards is the world's largest TV drama festival based on scripted drama. This year, a total of 268 entries from 56 different countries entered the competition. The winners will be revealed on September 3rd at the festival in Seoul and broadcast on September 4th through SBS.

In Canada, SECOND OPINION is currently available on Bell Media; in English on The Movie Network and in French on Super Écran.

This is Incendo's third time being nominated in the TV Movie category at the Seoul International Drama Awards. In 2015, “The Good Sister” won both the Golden Bird prize for Best TV Movie as well as the Best Screenwriter award. In 2016, “First Response” was a finalist for Best TV Movie.

SECOND OPINION: Ivy Fisher is at the top of her game; A whip-smart, devastatingly attractive upstart business owner. She is your typical thirtysomething, with a stalled personal life and overactive career. But during a crucial investor meeting, Ivy's body begins to fail her. Plagued with an onset of dizziness and a crippling headache, Ivy crashes. Enter Dr. Mark Ryan – a corrupt doctor ready to feed his desire for power, and Ivy is his perfect subject. This rock-hard businesswoman is now about to confront her mortality. But much to Ivy's shock, she is about to find out that Dr. Ryan, a person she trusts, has the recipe to finally break her.
