CAROLINE LABRÈCHE'S "SECOND OPINION"
FINALIST AT THE DGC AWARDS

Montreal, September 11th, 2018 – Incendo, a Canadian leader in television production and worldwide distribution based in Montreal, is very proud to announce that Caroline Labrèche, the director of its movie SECOND OPINION, is nominated for Outstanding Directorial Achievement in Movies for Television and Mini-Series at the 2018 DGC Awards. Winners will be announced on Saturday October 20th in Toronto.

This is the second nomination for SECOND OPINION, which was also a finalist for Best TV Movie at the Seoul International Drama Awards last week. Caroline Labrèche is currently shooting "Thicker Than Water" in Montreal, her second movie produced by Incendo.

"Caroline is just the kind of director we love working with - original, creative, passionate and dedicated to the highest of standards. As a new female director, Caroline's nomination is a testament to the place she deserves in the Canadian media industry" says Ian Whitehead, head of production and development at Incendo.

SECOND OPINION - Ivy Fisher is at the top of her game; A whip-smart, devastatingly attractive upstart business owner. She is your typical thirtysomething, with a stalled personal life and overactive career. But during a crucial investor meeting, Ivy's body begins to fail her. Plagued with an onset of dizziness and a crippling headache, Ivy crashes. Enter Dr. Mark Ryan – a corrupt doctor ready to feed his desire for power, and Ivy is his perfect subject. This rock-hard business woman is now about to confront her mortality. But much to Ivy's shock, she is about to find out that Dr. Ryan, a person she trusts, has the recipe to finally break her.
