INCENDO'S "TWISTED" FINALIST FOR BEST TV MOVIE AT THE C21 INTERNATIONAL DRAMA AWARDS

Montreal, November 7th, 2018 – Incendo, a Canadian leader in television production and worldwide distribution based in Montreal, is very proud to announce that its thriller TWISTED is a C21 International Drama Awards finalist for Best TV Movie. Shot on location in Montreal, the movie was directed by Philippe Gagnon, written by Barbara Kymlicka and stars Elisabeth Harnois alongside Canadian talents Morgan Kelly and Kimberly-Sue Murray. Jean Bureau and Ian Whitehead produced the film and the Executive Producer is Jean Bureau.

This is the third consecutive year that an Incendo production receives this recognition: its movies' GIRLS' NIGHT OUT and BRACE FOR IMPACT were finalist for Best TV Movie in 2017 and 2016 respectively. From 227 entries across 11 categories, the finalists reflect the prolific drama output over the past 12 months. Winners will be announced during a ceremony at St. Pancras Renaissance Hotel during C21's Content London conference on November 28 in London, UK.

TWISTED - Kara has become her boyfriend Tyler's rock; getting him back on his feet after a turbulent time in his life. They're planning on getting married and everything is perfect until Tyler's ex-girlfriend Isabelle returns from rehab and wants to get her life back - starting with Tyler. Kara is immediately threatened by Isabelle who is everything Kara's not - sexy, daring and outspoken. To Kara's shock, Isabelle begins injecting herself into Tyler's life and Kara fears that he may fall back into his bad habits. As Kara's world starts to crumble, she notices that Isabelle may be behind the violent threats against her. What starts off as one woman's desire to hold on to her fiancé and the life they've built together, turns into a twisted game of cat and mouse, as Kara tries to survive the jealous wrath of the "evil" ex-girlfriend.
